WELCOME TO WEEK 9

P&C Raffle

The P&C monster Christmas raffle is to be drawn at our Presentation Day. We ask that you return sold or unsold tickets together with the money collected to the school before next Tuesday 6th December.

Library Books

Student library books and bags are due to be returned to the school prior to end of the school year. Could they please be returned by Thursday 8th December?

Invoices for long overdue or lost books will be sent out in the week beginning 12th December.

Thank you

We wish to thank Inverell Shire Council for the new koala warning road signs that are now near 50km signs.

Swimming School

Thank you to the students who have brought their swimming school note and money back. If you haven't returned your child/children's note and money could you please do so next week.

Presentation Day

Our presentation Day is to be a full day of many activities and will get underway at 10.00am with the opening of our Yarning Circle. We will have two special guests including Uncle Kelvin Brown to facilitate the opening.

This will be followed by our Presentation Day Ceremony.

After this event will be our Christmas luncheon and the drawing of The Monster P&C Raffle.

The afternoon session begins with Christmas Craft and we invite all guest to stay and help your child/children in this enjoyable craft time.

We then have the students recess/fruit time followed by a colour run activity. We recommend that you send a change of clothes to school for this activity.
