Term 1 Week 2
17th March 2023

Welcome to Week 8

NAPLAN ONLINE

NAPLAN online 2023 begins on Wednesday 15th March, for Years 3 & 5:

Writing Wednesday 15th March;
Reading Monday 20th March;
Language Conventions Tuesday 21st March; and Numeracy Wednesday 22nd March.

Moving NAPLAN into Term One means results and information will be available to the department earlier in the year so they can be used to inform teaching and learning programs and to provide further support for parents, students and schools.

Election Day P&C Stall.

The P&C have been given approval to conduct a Cake Stall at the school on 25th March the day of the State Elections.

The P&C are asking for any donations of baked cakes, biscuits, slices and sweets for sale on the day.

Casual Teacher

Mrs Kristy Moffitt is currently working in our school as a casual teacher.

Kristy and her family have moved to our area from Wallabadah over the Christmas break.

We are very pleased to welcome Kristy to our school.

Super Sentences

Last week the Primary class was working on creating Super Sentences.

Theses sentences are constructed by:

Formula: Emotional words + comma + name + rest of the sentence.

E.g. – Furious, Kate stomped home.

Disappointed, Harry ran to the cattle yards.

Ecstatic, James threw his homework in the air. Marlie.

Terrified, Lily screamed for help. Stunned, she was lost for words. Hunter.

Excited, Ryan took five wickets. Terrified, Lachlan stood on a snack. Surprised, Hunter flew up the stairs. Ryan S.

Resourcefulness is the ability to overcome challenges efficiently.

It involves the ability to innovate, create and solve problems using various resources.

Resourcefulness helps students to stay motivated despite having challenges, as they realise there is always something you can do to achieve your goal.

For Visual Art classes the Primary students have started with “Portray Yourself” beginning with a template showing the basic shapes and divisions of a face.
